"The Power of Innovation: Art Inside the New Energy Age"

2011 Regional Juried Art Competition

Artwork must relate to Energy, Power, Sustainability, and / or Innovation.

To celebrate its expansion to become a North American Energy Hub, the Siemens Energy Turbine-Generator Facility in Charlotte calls on local artists to submit art work for a juried art competition. Acceptance into the exhibition will allow artists, both amateur and professional, to offer their work for sale and to compete for cash prizes and purchase awards. Artwork for both indoor and outdoor exhibition is desired.

Siemens manufactures and services large generators and steam turbines. Its facility is expanding to include gas turbines for the 60-Hertz energy market, with an official grand opening scheduled to be held mid November 2011. The site will manufacture some of the most energy efficient products for power generation and will add more than 1,000 jobs over the next few years.
